

Order Form Read-A-Book Distance Learning Book Report Materials

Read-A-Book Program materials may be downloaded and printed by visiting the Read-A-Book Program at: http://www.dss.virginia.gov/family/cc/professionals_resources.cgi, or they may be requested via email to: peggy.watkins@vachildcare.org. Materials requested by email will be sent electronically via email and are free. If you would like to receive materials via the U.S. Postal Service, please indicate which Option(s) and materials you would like below, and include $10.00 to cover postage and handling. For the nearest library, please access the Virginia State Library at <http://www.lva.virginia.gov/public/libraries.asp>.

OPTION 1 (0-8 clocks hours of training credit)

Option 1 requires you to select two children's literature books, write a lesson plan and description of how you plan to use a shadow box or prop box to support the story or theme of each book, read the books and complete the planned activities with your children, then describe the success of your activities. You may choose from the infant and toddler storybooks placed in each public library in Virginia (see listing in Read-A-Book Program Materials), or you may choose two of your favorite children's books.

OPTION 2 (0-26 clocks hours of training credit)

Option 2 requires you to read one of the following professional books listed and then complete the corresponding Professional Development Book Report. Every Virginia public library has at least one copy of the professional development books listed. Option 2 book report forms are tailored for each book and must be requested separately from the Read-A-Book Program Materials. Place a check next to the book report forms that you would like to order.
